

Cannes Corporate Media & TV Awards

1Camera, Off the Fence and Continental AG are the big winners of the 2022 edition

Cannes, October 19th, 2022. For the 13th edition of the Cannes Corporate Media & TV Awards, the competition welcomed around 800 submissions from over 40 countries. Among them, 197 corporate and documentary productions were nominated as finalists and from this selection, 129 entries receive a coveted Dolphin Trophy.

Two Grand Prix Winners

For the first time in the history of the Cannes Corporate Media & TV Awards, two Grand Prix – White Dolphins - have been awarded: one for the “Best Corporate Media” and one for the “Best Documentary”. The Grand Prix for Corporate Media goes to 1Camera from the Netherlands for the film “Sustainable living, together. The Achmea way”. “Exciting storytelling, combined with a driving game of time and numbers.”, the jury stated. Equally successful was the production company behind the Grand Prix winning documentary film "Going Circular", Bristol-based Off the Fence. The company’s production about circular economy was recognized as “[r]evolutionary” by our jury that stated, “The importance of the subject and the visual and narrative treatment make this work a remarkable film!”

Best Production Company and Best Company of the Year – the Blue Dolphin Winners

Off the Fence from the UK is not only the winner of the White Dolphin for the “Best Documentary”, but also received the Blue Dolphin for the “Production Company of the Year”. The second Blue Dolphin for the “Company of the Year” went to Continental AG. The production “Mobility. Our Heartbeat for 150 Years.” received the incredible number of six Silver Dolphins in the categories “Corporate Videos,” “Integrated Communication” and “Social Media Videos”, to name a few.

A Broad Panel of International Submissions

Submissions from the UK by BCG, Brave Spark Creative Studio, Casual Films, Ekstasy Ltd, NHS, Raw London, RD Content, Shell International Ltd and Twist And Shout Communications, just to name a few, were very highly represented among this year’s winners. Additionally, production companies, such as Artificial Craft (HU), Bleck Media (NL), Bocek vGmbH (IT), Headspin Productions (NO), M2 Film (DK), Thomas Fink (DK) and Unlimited Creativity (GR) have been awarded with Dolphin Trophies and Finalist Certificates.

Moreover, various winners from all around the world including Ashi Films from Japan, What If Creative Studio from the United Arab Emirates as well as Al Jazeera from Qatar are underlining the strong international participation of the 13th festival edition.

Winner Diplomas

Within the past 13 years, the Cannes Corporate winner diplomas turned into a desirable collector’s piece which annually gets a new and stunning design. As part of the cooperation with “der Graphischen”, a well-known Viennese art school, the unique diplomas, which are awarded together with the Dolphin Trophies, were selected in the frame of a design competition.
